

Kern County Sheriff's Office

Scan Here

COMPLAINT FORM

The Kern County Sheriff's Office aims to maintain trust and confidence within the community by diligently investigating all personnel complaints fairly and impartially. Employees found to have committed misconduct will be held accountable through a consistent disciplinary system. A written complaint procedure is available to the public in the Sheriff's Office Personnel Complaint brochure. However, the brochure is not the only means to file a complaint; all forms are accepted, including verbal, electronic communications, social media, audio/video recordings, and complaints made by third parties or anonymously. For a copy of the Public Complaint brochure, scan the QR on this card or visit <https://www.kernsheriff.org/complaints>.

Kern County Sheriff's Office

Scan Here

COMPLAINT FORM

The Kern County Sheriff's Office aims to maintain trust and confidence within the community by diligently investigating all personnel complaints fairly and impartially. Employees found to have committed misconduct will be held accountable through a consistent disciplinary system. A written complaint procedure is available to the public in the Sheriff's Office Personnel Complaint brochure. However, the brochure is not the only means to file a complaint; all forms are accepted, including verbal, electronic communications, social media, audio/video recordings, and complaints made by third parties or anonymously. For a copy of the Public Complaint brochure, scan the QR on this card or visit <https://www.kernsheriff.org/complaints>.